WANT TO LEARN, NOT WEAR DRESS SUITS

Congressional Party
After Information
About Hawaii

VISIT MAY COST MORE THAN WAS ANTICIPATED

Change of Date Has Obligated Several of the Congressmen to Refuse
Invitation to Come to Paradise

Information concerning Hawaii, not formal entertainment, is what the Congressional party that is coming next month wants, according to a letter received this morning by Secretary Atkinson from McClellan, "Congressmen," he writes, "get tired of wearing dress suits all winter."

The letter contains considerable information concerning the party which is of interest. It appears that the visit is liable to cost more than was at first anticipated, as railroad transportation is going to be a bigger figure than was calculated. An effort was made to have the date of the sailing of the transport postponed one day, to May 1, to enable the members of the party to get the advantage of the shorter rates, but Taft refused to consider the proposition.

McClellan estimates that the party will be made up of about forty Congressmen, to which number must be added eighteen more, wives of Congressmen.

Some invitations have been declined on account of the change in date. Some who would have come had the date been in June, as at first planned, will be unable to come this month. Some of them are absent, having gone to Panama and other places and will not be able to return in time to take the Hawaiian trip.

Invitations were issued to Senators Foraker, Dick, Dillingham, Perkins, Flint, Piles, Clapp, Warner, Rayner, Mallory, Dewey, Warren and Morgan, but all except Flint, Piles and Dillingham have already said that they will be unable to join the party. Perkins expects to come later in the summer, and possibly Warren, but not as guests. It is also hoped, writes Mr. McClellan, that Chairman Barthold of the Public Buildings Committee may be able to make the trip at a later day.

Most of the Congressmen, the Secretary writes, "really want to learn about the islands, and we don't want them to go away, like Mr. Payne, with the idea that the only things we have are good roads and sugar kings."

The House had a long talk this afternoon over the salary of the Attorney General. It finally passed at $200 per month.

Your church contribution don't cut any ice unless you back it with a few prayers.

The Value Of Confidence

In no line of business is the buyer's confidence of more importance than in the selling of clothing.
The dealer who attempts to convince the buyer that his goods are the best, and that his place is the place where the best could be obtained, must see that the facts conform to his statements, and that his goods are in every way up to the standard. He had better never try to sell to a man than to mislead him or to exaggerate; for the customer will quickly discover such practice of misrepresenting merchandise.
There is never danger of a protest and always a certainty of full value received when a coat or suit is recognized as

RAILROAD BILL IS DEEMED SUSPICIOUS

Current Expense Bill Is Raised $5459 By
Senate

SENATE

41st Day—Forenoon Session

The Senate did quite a bit of work this morning and wasted but little time on debate. The liquor bill and the current expense bill were reported on by the chairman of the Committee on the Whole and passed second reading. The latter has been raised $5459 over the amount involved in the original bill.

The Governor's veto of the bill providing that laws must be published in all the Counties was sustained, although Smith spoke in favor of overruling it.

The bill giving railway companies authority to use electricity or other motive power was amended considerably on the recommendation of the Lands Committee. Even after that it failed to pass second reading. Bishop calling the attention of the Senate to the fact that it looked suspiciously like a general franchise bill, and action was deferred.

HOUSE DISAGREES

Senate Bill 51, the railroad tax exemption bill, was returned from the House, where it had passed third reading with some amendments. Action was deferred.

Senate Bill 10, relating to pounds, was also returned from the House with some amendments, among them being a reduction of the fee for

WALLACH MAY GO TO JAIL, NOT MOLOKAI

Female Rock Fakir Is Charged With Perjury

J. Lor Wallach, the female rock fakir, may not be allowed to go to Molokai with his worms and things, legislative resolutions to the contrary notwithstanding. He stands a chance of going to jail instead, and if the case against him is as strong as it is said to be by the prosecution, he is liable to do so.

Wallach is charged with perjury in registering falsely before the last election. There were a number of indictments by the Grand Jury on this charge, and the first case was tried before a jury in Judge De Bolt's court this morning, resulting in a conviction of Wallach. Valberg on October 6, a month before the election, registered from Queen and Richards streets, which he gave as his residence.

According to the testimony brought this morning, Valberg was working at Waiwahu plantation. He tried to register there, but was too late, so he came to Honolulu and registered from Queen and Richards streets, swearing that he had lived there for six months or over.

John Holt, registrar of the Board, was one of the witnesses against him. Another was Spillner, a policeman at Waiwahu, who swore that Valberg was living there up to October 2.

Valberg acted as his own attorney. Judge Gear having withdrawn from the case.

No sentence has yet been imposed. The maximum penalty is 20 years' imprisonment.

Wallach's case is the next one to come up for trial.

Lots of people know how to get there, but only a few can figure on how to get back.

VOTES PILE UP FOR THE FIRST COUNT

The Bulletin has one request to make of the contestants who are slated to make the trip along the Pacific Coast under the chaperonage of Mrs. Weathered.

Please send in photographs. Mrs. Weathered wants them. And with the Bulletin what Mrs. Weathered says goes, as she is a good friend of Hawaii and its people.

The voting is going forward at a great rate, and the prospect is that the first count will bring out more votes than have ever been recorded in any voting contest ever conducted in the Territory. Admiral Beekley is taking up the cause of the outside islands and everyone knows that when the Admiral announces his preference for a Hilo young lady that young lady will have a very active following. Kauai will also have one very strong candidate, and a close second, whose friend sends in a preliminary four votes and says he is ready to keep the votes coming until the young lady has four millions.

That's not a joke. He can deliver the goods. So it is going on all sides. A man came in from Waiwahu yesterday afternoon and it is safe to predict that Waiwahu will be very much in the lead of the first section of outside districts. It intends to be represented.

The count will be made on Thursday afternoon and the result published on Friday afternoon. Those wishing to appear in the first count should have their ballots in before 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Keep close watch of the date on your coupons. That shows when the coupon expires and you should not have any left on your hands. Deposit them early.

SENATE PASSES STIFF LICENSE BILL

SENATE

41st Day—Afternoon Session.
House Bill 42, regulating barber shops, passed third reading.
Dowsett reported for the Ways and Means Committee on Senate Bill 52, the general license bill; Senate Bill 26, providing for a merchandise license; and House Bill 170, providing for a $250 license fee for trust companies. The committee found that all these licenses were a just tax and recommended the passage of the bills.

Senate Bill 51, the railroad tax exemption bill, was taken up on the amendments made by the House. These made it include extensions of old railroads. Makekani moved to concur. Chillingworth moved not to concur. Dowsett wanted it either referred or deferred. Dowsett moved to refer it to the Lands Committee. This carried.

The veto of House Bill 123, providing that no appointive or elective government officer can hold two positions, was taken up. It was sustained by a vote of 10 to 3.

Senate Bill 93, the general license bill, was taken up on second reading. It provided for a license of $50 for garages in Honolulu and $25 in outside districts; and $10 for barber shops and $5 for each chair over two. Knudsen moved to strike out the chair license fee. Carried. Lane moved to make the barber shop license $25. The barbers were willing to stand it; they would gladly pay $100. Smith opposed it. Hayelden said the country people got shaved too. If the $25 license went through, the country shops would go out of business. The item was finally reconsidered and passed as in the original bill. The bill as amended passed second reading.

BASEBALL MATTERS UNDER DISCUSSION

Amendment To By-Laws
Is Adopted This Morning

An important meeting of the Honolulu baseball League was held this morning at the office of President Thompson and an important action was taken in regard to players who sign with one team and then change their allegiance just before the season commences. The amendment was introduced by Pat Gleason and unanimously passed, now going to the trustees for their approval. Accompanying the amendment was a resolution stating the reason on account of which the amendment was necessary.

The amendment as offered says:

All clubs belonging to the League shall, at least ten days (Sundays and holidays excepted), before the opening of each season, file with the secretary and treasurer, a list of not more than sixteen players, which list shall be accompanied with a statement by the manager of each club that all of such players have agreed to play with the team of said club, and have personally signed their names to said list.

Upon receipt of said signed list, the secretary and treasurer shall render a copy to the managers of each club.

Any player signing more than one list for the same season shall be barred from playing in any of the League games for that season.

Any player signing or playing under an alias shall be barred for the season.

Any player whose name is on the signed list of one club, and plays on the team of another club shall be barred for the rest of the season, and the club so playing him after receiving due notice shall forfeit its game or games in which he played.

Clubs may have players not on the signed list; but any player not on said list who shall play in a single game or any part of a game with any one of the teams shall be considered as having signed with that team.

NO MORE PILINIA IN LOWER HOUSE

Storm Clouds Blow Away
And All Is Serene
Once More

HOUSE

41st Day—Forenoon Session
The threatened rupture in the House between the Speaker and the Clerk was smoothed over this morning and the dove of peace again brooded above the door of the legislative chamber. Neither party can claim that he got either the better or the worst of the argument. The difficulty was settled in the only feasible way—by the passage of an amendment to the original resolution by which the House directs the Clerk to turn over his records. He is thus relieved of the responsibility in case any of them are lost while they are out of his hands.

A large amount of business was transacted this morning, but nothing of a sensational character. Moanalell tried to induce the House to override the Governor's veto of House Bill 123, to prevent any person from holding two offices at the same time and drawing two salaries, but he failed to get a sufficient number of votes and the veto was sustained.

FR. JAMES TO PUNA

Father James left for his new post at Puna in the Kinau this morning. Father James is better known to some as James C. Beisel, who is not loth to take up the affairs of the church and defend them when attacked. Father James takes the place of a priest who has been in ill health.

WHITE WOMAN AND CHINESE HUSBAND

Emma Culver Follows
Deported Yee Ying
To China

LOVES HIM AND WILL FOLLOW HIS FORTUNE

Says She Is Sure That She Has Made
No Mistake in Her Selection of a Partner Through Life's Strenuous Way

On board the Coptic perhaps the two most interesting passengers are Yee Ying and his bride, who, before her marriage, was Miss Emma Culver of Monrovia, Cal. The Chinaman is a tall, handsome-looking chap, while his wife is small and a decided blonde. It is a case of love, pure and simple, and since Yee Ying has been deported his wife goes with him to China with no misgivings whatever.

The wife is a quiet little woman with a very low pleasing voice, and did not wish to be interviewed when seen this morning by a Bulletin reporter. Finally, however, she became a little talkative and stated that she followed her husband because she thought that it was right. That she had made no mistake in marrying him and that she would go anywhere he wished with him.

The San Francisco Call has the following to say about the couple:

Emma Culver of Monrovia, a suburb of Los Angeles, will be a cabin passenger on the Coptic when it sails for the Orient today. Down in the steerage will be her husband, Yee Ying, who is being deported with thirty other Asiatics after having stood trial for illegal residence in the United States.

Yee Ying is a cook by trade and affects Christianity, American manners and clothes. Emma Culver says that teams, is prohibited from playing with any other team for the rest of the season. And any club using a player so prohibited, after receiving due notice, shall forfeit such game or games in which such player has participated.

The minutes of the meeting of the League shall show the names of all barred and prohibited players.

Unanimous consent of the five clubs of the League at any regular or special meeting may nullify any of the clauses of this section, and restore barred and prohibited players.

The meeting was called to order by President Thompson, who announced that the trustees had approved of the change of names of several of the teams and that Major Van Vleet would represent the Tenth Infantry, Messrs. Gleason and Falk the St. Louis Alumni, and Messrs. Fernandez and Petrie, the Diamond Heads.

On account of the fact that two of the members of the committee appointed to arrange the schedule, Messrs. Coast and Lemon, had gone to the Coast, there was no report ready on this matter, and Messrs. Moanalell, Gleason and Wise were appointed as a new committee on this subject with instructions to report on Friday.
